Placement Essentials website

Quality supervision benefits both the student and the practitioner whilst organisation and planning are essential to getting the most out of your placement.

We're here to provide you with the tools and information. You'll find:

- teaching tips
- links to training
- resources for supervision

For further information on clinical placements, go to:
http://placements.iemml.org.au

medicare local
INNER EAST MELBOURNE
Connecting health to meet local needs

Helping you make the most of your student placement